Nicole M. Rowe Montgomery County Student

Nicole Michelle Rowe, 20, a former student at Germantown's Northwest High School and Bethesda's Walter Johnson High School, died Sept. 13 in Fairfield, Iowa, after being struck by a train. Her death is under investigation by the Iowa medical examiner.

Miss Rowe had bipolar disorder and had been hospitalized several times after earlier suicide attempts, said her father, Kenneth Rowe of North Potomac.

She was born in Silver Spring and grew up in North Potomac. She ran track and cross-country at Northwest and was on the cross-country team at Walter Johnson High. She did not graduate from either school. She moved with her mother to Iowa a year ago.

In addition to her father, survivors include her mother, Lisa Moseley Stickels of Fairfield, Iowa; her grandparents, Norma and David Rowe of Boynton Beach, Fla., and Thomas and
